Red, white and blue mufti day:

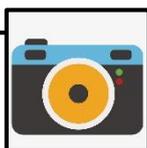

We are inviting the pupils to take part in a non-uniform day on Friday 18th May where the theme will be to dress in red, white and blue.

Traditionally year 6 have always celebrated the end of SATS with a party. As this year coincides with the Royal Wedding we thought we would invite the whole school to join the celebrations on that day!

School Council representatives are working closely with their teachers to plan and organise events for the afternoon. We can't wait to see what they come up with!

Say cheese!

The school photographer will be coming on Friday 25th May to take the annual individual, family and whole class photos. If you have any pre-school children that you would like in the photograph, please come and wait in the main school hall at 9.00 am.
