

Homework (28th March 2020, due Thursday, 2nd April 2020)

Reading: Please keep up reading daily and record what you have read in your diary.

- Write a book-review.

Spellings: This week, we continue focussing our eyes onto tricky spellings that are less often used, but linked by their root. e.g.: finalise – “Even though I would like to sleep a little longer, I desperately need to finalise my research.” said the confused professor whose Panda Eyes seem to be getting worse by the day.

infinitely	finalise	definitely	confinement	infinitesimal
-------------------	-----------------	-------------------	--------------------	----------------------

attachment	reattach	unattached	reattach	semi-detached
-------------------	-----------------	-------------------	-----------------	----------------------

English: Write a newspaper report to a topic you have chosen.

- e.g. daily news,
- Remember to include the necessary features. Make it really exciting and also, you are allowed to make it a little funny and entertaining.
- Most of all, have fun.

L.O.: I can use appropriate structural and language features to write a Newspaper Report.

I have used/included ...	I think	My parent thinks	My teacher thinks
• All structural features (catchy headline, by-line, lead, body, picture with caption, paragraphs ...)
• Formal, ambitious language
• Language for effect (e.g. figurative language)
• Rhetorical question
• Fronted adverbials
• Subordinating clauses
• direct and reported speech
• Correct spellings and a range of correct punctuation
