

Your Life So Far

Moving to the UK

Birth of my brother

Kindergarden

Long term Relationship

Reuben & Eli

Starting school

University

Choose 2-3 events of special importance. What made these events important to you?

The birth of my brother was/is important in my life because it gave me a companion and now our boys an awesome uncle who just got them a pony each. Luckily, they are not allowed to fly.

Germany becoming one country was important in my life because it change everything. In Eastern Germany, the government decided what job you could learn, then I was allowed to do A-Levels and become whatever I wanted to.

Meeting my wife was important in my life because it enriched my family's culture and meant spending family time in other countries. I widened my perspective and gave me new friends as well as two utterly crazy, but incredibly adorable children.