For everyone to have a home!

As the crystalized lanterns gently lit up, the curious girl pondered through the milky fog.

Swiftly, the fragile lanterns blew peacefully through the blowing wind

- Emily

... or finally the girl knew the thick fog that smother her eyes as the lantern shatters, it was a quiet on a drifting she fades away slowly.

When the amateur girl's dream became reality, the hard walls shattered like a mirror, which made a variety of ghostly lanterns jingle like christmas bells leading her towards a curtain of 'marvellous' illusions - the clear danger of life or death.

- Cynde

Carefully, the young girl strolled through the thick, heavy fog as the lanterns glowed through the dark, abyssal sky.

James

The petite girl strode through the ghostly,
suffocating fog.
As the crystal blue
lanterns danced
in the aggressive
wind.

As the haunted ^{spiteful} girl looked through the creepy fog like a zombie blew in the marvellous wind Lazy lanterns blew in the laughing giant
