It is an offence to apply for the role if the applicant is barred from engaging in regulated activity relevant to children.

The School is required, by law, to operate a checking procedure for employees who have access to children and young people, and if you are shortlisted for interview you will be required to complete a self-disclosure form and return it to the school prior to the day of the interview.

All shortlisted applicants must complete a self-disclosure form, and if you have ever been the subject of any child protection concern, either in your work or personal life, or been the subject of, or involved in, any disciplinary action in relation to child protection, including any which are time expired, you must provide the details on the form.

REHABILITATION OF OFFENDERS ACT 1974

All posts involving direct contact with children are exempt from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. However, amendments to the Exceptions Order 1975 (2013 & 2020) provide that certain spent convictions and cautions are 'protected'. These are not subject to disclosure to employers and cannot be taken into account. Guidance and criteria on the filtering of these cautions and convictions can be found at <https://hub.unlock.org.uk/knowledgebase/filtering-cautions-convictions/>

Shortlisted candidates will be asked to provide details of all unspent convictions and those that would not be filtered, prior to the date of the interview. You may be asked for further information about your criminal history during the recruitment process. If your application is successful, this self-disclosure information will be checked against information from the Disclosure & Barring Service before your appointment is confirmed.

DBS DISCLOSURE

The Disclosure and Barring Service, an executive agency of the Home Office, helps employers check records, which were previously held by the police, the Department of Health and the Department for Education.

A check as to the existence and content of a criminal record will be requested from the Disclosure and Barring Service after a person has been selected for appointment to this post. Refusal to agree to a check being made could disqualify you from being considered for the appointment.

Different levels of disclosure can be provided, according to the type of work applied for.

The job for which you have applied necessitates an Enhanced disclosure.

Enhanced disclosures are for positions which have contact with children or vulnerable adults or work in a "specified place." They contain details of all convictions, cautions, reprimands or warnings on record. The list of people who are barred from working with children (formerly called List 99) will be checked as part of this process.

In the event of a successful application, an offer of employment may be made to you which is conditional upon receipt of a satisfactory Enhanced Disclosure and Barring

Check in relation to criminal and child protection matters. Please note that a conviction will not necessarily be a bar to obtaining employment.

By checking this box, I hereby confirm that I agree, if I am selected for the appointment, to a check being made on any criminal record applicable to me. I am aware that such information as appropriate for Enhanced Disclosures will be made available.
